Occupational Health and Safety Inspector, Yellowknife N20/34NT

The Workers' Safety and Compensation Commission's (WSCC) vision is to eliminate workplace diseases and injuries. Our mission is to promote workplace health and safety while providing no fault insurance to employers and care for injured workers. Our values are respect, engagement, integrity, openness, cultural safety, excellence and stewardship in the workplace.

The OHS Inspector position is located in Yellowknife, NT and reports to the OHS Supervisor with direct contact to the Chief. This position is appointed as an Inspector by the Safety Acts. The Inspector provides services to employers, workers, and the public related to industries identified within the Northwest Territories (NT) and Nunavut (NU) Mine Health and Safety Acts, Explosives Use Act, Safety Acts and the associated Regulations (Acts & Regs).

The Acts and Regulations give the OHS Inspector the legislative authority to enter worksites to assess compliance with the Act & Reg, to conduct inspections and investigate dangerous occurrences, serious injuries or fatalities, work refusals and employee claims of discrimination.

The OHS Inspector uses communication, diplomacy skills and knowledge to coach or guide employers and workers toward improving their Internal Responsibility System (IRS) and that best practices are being followed. The OHS Inspector must take action to protect workers using his/her regulatory authorities when the IRS is not working.

This position requires a degree or diploma in OHS, from an accredited university, and a minimum of 3 years of progressive experience working in an industrial or mining health and safety field. A valid class 5 driver's license is also required. Equivalent combinations of education and experience will be considered.

The salary ranges from $47.68 to $56.96 hourly (approx. $ 92,976 to $ 111,072 yearly), plus a Northern Allowance of $3,700 yearly.

A satisfactory criminal records check is required for this position.
